Smith & Wesson Announces New M&P® M2.0™ Pistol With TRUGLO® TFX™ Sights

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., (October 25, 2017) – Smith & Wesson Corp. today announced that the company's popular M&P M2.0 pistol is now available with front and rear TRUGLO TFX sights. Chambered in both 9mm and .40 S&W in the popular Flat Dark Earth finish, the M&P M2.0 pistol features a 4.25" barrel, no thumb safety, and ships with TRUGLO TFX Sights for enhanced visibility in a variety of conditions.

Jan Mladek, General Manager for Smith & Wesson® and M&P® brands said, "The M&P M2.0 pistol in Flat Dark Earth with TRUGLO TFX sights provides the consumer with an out-of-the-box solution for enhanced visibility in all lighting conditions. The TRUGLO TFX pistol sights feature encapsulated Tritium and Fiber Optic technology that improve both daylight and nighttime sight visibility, and are a perfect complement to the M&P M2.0 pistol."

The M&P M2.0 pistol with TRUGLO TFX Sights delivers a reliable, striker-fired pistol that features all of the popular M2.0 features, including the new M2.0 trigger and aggressive grip texturing. The pistol features a solid, molded polymer frame designed for comfort and durability, four interchangeable palmswell grips, and an 18-degree grip angle for natural point of aim.
