Smith & Wesson® Releases M&P®15T II Engraved Limited-Edition Rifle Commemorating Smith & Wesson's move to Tennessee

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., (November 9, 2021) – Smith & Wesson broke ground for its new headquarters on November 5th in Maryville, Tennessee and, to celebrate this historic move from our long-time headquarters at 2100 Roosevelt Ave, Smith & Wesson has released 2,100 limited edition M&P15T II engraved rifles. Engraved on the magazine well is an eagle, American flag, and the text “Since 1852 Protecting the 2nd,” representing the company’s commitment to the 2nd Amendment and its customers.

The M&P 15T II Engraved rifle features a free-float 16” barrel that features 5R rifling with a twist rate of 1:8 and is equipped with a mid-length gas system delivering reduced recoil and efficient cycling. A forged, oversized trigger guard provides maximum clearance when wearing gloves and the rifle is equipped with a new flat face trigger for a crisp and consistent trigger pull. The M&P15T II comes standard with a Radian™ Raptor-LT™ charging handle, providing ambidextrous manipulation. Also included is a Magpul CTR carbine-length stock and a 15” aluminum M-Lok handguard topped with Magpul MBUS® sights.

The MSRP on the new M&P15T II Engraved Limited-Edition rifle is $1,372.
